Luxair – 6th weekday flight to London City

From the 31st March 2014, Luxair will operate 6 return flights, Monday to Friday, between Luxembourg and London City, maintaining its starting price of *99€ for return trips (all taxes included)

It was just one year ago that Luxair announced the introduction of a 5th daily service on the Luxembourg-London City route. And to meet the increasing demand on this destination, Luxair Luxembourg Airlines has now decided to operate, from the 31st March 2014, 6 daily return flights on weekdays between Luxembourg and London City. The new flight will leave Luxembourg at 7.20 in the morning, arriving into London at 7.35am (local time). Furthermore, Luxair Luxembourg Airlines will carefully and regularly monitor passenger demand, with the possibility of providing a 7th daily flight.

More flexibility and easy access to get you into London

With this 6th flight, Luxair Luxembourg Airlines confirms its strategy of meeting its customer's demands on the most sought-after destinations from Luxembourg and the Greater Region. At the same time, the Luxemburgish Company has also strengthened its position as the leader on the London route.

The high frequency of flights together with a well-planned schedule distribution will provide Luxair customers added flexibility when planning their trips, be it for business or leisure.

Furthermore, London City airport is ideally located for easy access into London, and particularly to the City, with an average travel time of 20min, via public transport or taxi.

An attractive fare structure

Luxair Luxembourg Airlines has maintained its current fare structure, offering great flexibility in combining all booking classes, as well as attractive conditions for regular clients with its "Abonnement" offer. The company remains true to its policy of attractive return prices, particularly for leisure passengers, with fares starting at *99€ all inclusive.

The all-inclusive rates are a strong argument for Luxair. Tickets include a range of services that will please the most demanding travellers, namely attentive on-board service, seat allocation (when checking-in online), baggage allowance of 20kgs (30kgs in Business class), on board catering and drinks, free
