Festival Vakanz – the unmissable event makes its comeback

The beginning of the year has always been the time to plan the next vacation. This is why Luxair and LuxairTours are launching their Festival Vakanz 2024 from January 19 to 31, offering a multitude of choices at exceptional prices.

There's no better way to start the year than with two weeks of special offers to book one's vacation for 2024. Luxair and LuxairTours and all partner travel agencies are reviving the traditional Vakanz event, inviting customers to explore opportunities on the www.luxair.lu and www.luxairtours.lu websites, in partner travel agencies and in the Luxair Travel Stores in Munsbach and at the airport. From January 19 to 31, customers can take advantage of a diverse range of attractive offers for travels between February 1 and October 31, 2024.

Exceptional offers for holidays in 2024:

Exceptional offers for holidays in 2024 abound at the Festival Vakanz 2024, promising outstanding opportunities to plan dream getaways at great rates across Luxair's extensive network of over 94 destinations to discover.

LuxairTours launches its offers from €349, for example, for a 7-night stay in Faro, located on Europe's most picturesque coast, with the flight included in the price. Destinations dear to the hearts of LuxairTours customers, such as Majorca, are available from €399.

Over two-hundred-and-forty hotels participate in the Festival Vakanz, in thirty-eight destinations, among which, the latest addition, Brac in Croatia. Whether opting for a family vacation in a LUXiClub, where children are pampered as if they were kings, or rather for an unforgettable experience in carefully selected hotels, while enjoying an exclusive welcome and services, there's something for every taste and all budgets. During the Festival Vakanz, dream vacations tailored to individual desires are within everyone's reach.

With 60,000 tickets on sale, to and from fifty-six destinations, and prices starting from €109 (for example for a return flight to Porto, depending on the fare class chosen), there's something for everyone. Trendy destinations with exceptional offers include the very latest additions to the network, allowing discovery of destinations such as Pescara, the picturesque Italian coastal town, Ljubljana with its twice-weekly connections for the perfect getaway, or even, Manchester, served from March 29, 2024 with three flights a week.

During the Festival Vakanz, the temptation to plan a vacation will be irresistible. Even the most indecisive customers in search of inspiration will be delighted, as immersive experience will be offered, with warm encounters, entertainment for all ages and gifts, all in a summery atmosphere.

New in 2024 – Pop-up store Vakanz:

A Festival Vakanz pop-up store will be set up on the second floor of the Auchan Kirchberg shopping center, just opposite the cash desks, on January 19 and 20 and January 26 and 27, between 09:00 and 19:00, to facilitate exchanges and guide customers towards their dream escapades, thanks to the advice of travel professionals.

Customers will have the opportunity to meet the Luxair and LuxairTours teams and enjoy a warm welcome as they book their vacation packages and flights at the best prices, while immersing themselves in a host of memorable experiences thanks to the activities on offer.

While booking their vacations, different types of entertainment will be offered for young and old alike. From a photobooth to capture the experience, to meeting LUXi, the LuxairTours mascot, combined with activities for children, to the sandy beach, set up to give the impression of being on vacation by the sea, and the non-alcoholic cocktails to celebrate great offers... everyone will be spoiled.
