- In the event of complaint of any kind or contestation related to the seminar, the courts of Luxembourg-City have sole jurisdiction and the applicable law is Luxembourg law.

Agenda:

The seminars last a weekend and take place in small groups in a relaxed atmosphere. Participants are permanently supervised by a psychologist.

A Luxair pilot gives technical explanations on the operation of an aircraft and weather conditions.

A visit of an aircraft on apron with a stay in the cockpit allows the participants to familiarize themselves with the procedures of take-off and landing which often alleviates already some fears.

The seminar ends on Sunday with a round-trip flight to a Luxair destination. The pilot of the plane is the one who participated in the whole seminar and the psychologist is present on board.
