

Specific Group Conditions « flight only »

Why choose to book a group rate rather than individual rate?

Booking through our group department will ensure a personalized service and financial flexibility (down-payment will only be requested 30 days prior departure). You will also have the freedom to make some changes (free modification of names and reduction of the size of the group up to certain level). In addition, you will benefit from certain advantages such as free standard seats and the possibility to purchase other options. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any further questions.
