THE ISLAND

Ibiza is one of the most beautiful islands in Europe, and it certainly is the liveliest one. Every year more than 4 million visitors come to the island, which has just over 100,000 permanent residents. ‘Eivissa’ is the formal Catalan name and the name used by its inhabitants. The Balearic island has had many occupants over the last thousand years - from the ancient Phoenician and Carthagian peoples to the Greeks, Moors, Turks and Catalans.

By the 60’s, though, the main invaders were hippies and they established Ibiza as a place for counterculture. All left their cultural fingerprints on Ibiza with a 2,000-year-old salt industry, an old smugglers route, a hippie market and a charming old town. Today, Ibiza is more international than ever - this is evident in the many restaurants offering very different culinary experiences and in the bars and clubs with chic designs set against absolutely breathtaking scenery.

BEACH LIFE

One of the overwhelming reasons for travelling to Ibiza is enjoying the lovely beaches dotting the island’s coastline, swimming in crystal-clear waters and enjoying the company of happy people. Whether you are here for the parties, water sports or just to get a nice tan, Ibiza certainly has the beach for you.

Cala Comte

There’s a little bit of everything here: the beaches are beautiful, the clear water is beloved by snorkelling fans, water sports are on offer and some decent bars can be found as well. Cala Comte is situated on the west coast of the island.

DO & SEE

Can Marça Caves

Enjoy the breathtaking views of the sea as you descend into the prehistoric, concealed cave system once used by smugglers. Stalagmites and stalactites adorn the cave and at the centre there’s a 9 meter high water cascade. Tours take place every hour from 10.30 until sunset every day all year.

Ibiza is more than just bars and beach life. Take a day to explore the island by bike or car, stroll among the narrow streets of Dalt Vila and pick up a real bargain at the Hippy Market. There are ample possibilities for water sports, diving and snorkelling, too.

Almudaina/Castillo de Eivissa/Ibiza Castle

This fortress used to be the military and administrative headquarters of the Moslem ‘Wali’. Ruins from the 12th and 13th centuries have been uncovered here, although most buildings are from the 16th century. The Almudaina has been declared a World Heritage site.

Museu Diocesà

The Diocesan Museum features Ibizan jewellery from the 18th century and religious sculptures, such as the one of Rosary Virgin (Verge del Roser) and the Las Almas, which is quite spectacular with devil figures and demons.
Ibiza Cathedral

The cathedral is a combination of several different styles and time periods. It has a Gothic bell tower and a baroque interior, and is a definitely fascinating attraction for the history buff. Inside the cathedral lies the Museu Diocesà.

Ibiza Horse Valley

Ibiza Horse Valley is a lovely sanctuary for horses that have been treated badly. Not only will you see the horses in the wild, but you can also go for a whole day horseback riding in the forest or swimming with the beautiful creatures.

Iglesia del Puig de Missa

Iglesia del Puig de Missa is yet another location on the island of Ibiza that offers visitors amazing views. On the walk up to this 13th century church you will pass by many scenic spots; one tip is to go a bit later in the day when it is not too hot.

Yoga & Ayurveda

Despite Ibiza enjoying a reputation of being one of the best party islands in the world, many people visit the island because of the beautiful and tranquil yoga retreats. If you opt for spending your stay at one of those (LilyPod Yoga & Ayurveda, for example), you are guaranteed to fly home rejuvenated and recharged.

Ibiza Karting San Antonio

Speed, adrenaline and fun for the whole family! You can come here with children from 4 years old and up. It is one of the best ways to spend a couple of hours and a nice break from the lazy beach days. Who is the daredevil in your group?
Dalt Vila

The Dalt Vila (old town) walls have been declared a World Heritage site by UNESCO. It was built in the 16th century as a defence fortification. The narrow cobbled streets are well-preserved, and magnificent views await on top of the castle complex as well as by the Santa María Cathedral - the crown of the Dalt Vila. The outstanding gateway Portal de ses Taules can be found in the north wall.

Public Transport: Take the 30 min ferry crossing from the port of Ibiza Town to port La Savina
Ibiza’s culture and history is reflected in the island’s culinary heritage. The cuisine is strongly influenced by different Mediterranean cultures, particularly by the cuisine of Catalonia. Fresh fish and seafood dominate the island’s culinary culture. However, Ibiza’s restaurants cater to all kinds of gastronomic preferences.

El Bigotes

This is a secluded restaurant near the Cala Mastella beach. The owner goes fishing in the morning and serves his catch as “Arroz Marineras” in the afternoon and evening. Reservations are mandatory; it is said that even the Spanish king himself was refused because he didn’t have a reservation.

Dos Lunas

This is a favourite among the occasional visiting royalty and celebrities, and for good reason - the food is absolutely delicious, and the refreshing garden setting is incredibly appealing. Advance booking is highly recommended.

La Brasa

La Brasa serves Mediterranean cuisine with a modern twist. The choice stands primarily between different seafood dishes, which can be enjoyed in beautiful outdoor garden surroundings in a great atmosphere.

La Oliva

Mediterranean cooking with an Asian touch is served in this charming restaurant, centrally located in Ibiza’s most animated square, where something seems to always be going on. Booking is advisable in high season.
Sa Carboneria

Sa Carboneria is an authentic Spanish restaurant and steakhouse tucked away in a quaint street of Santa Eulalia del Rio. The patio is magical, with tables set amidst colorful bougainvilleas.

Bar Doña Ana

Bar Doña Ana is an establishment that can be best described as a café during daytime which turns into a bar as the sun begins to set. You can come here for an English breakfast or a tasty lunch - hot or cold. You can also choose if you wish to be seated on the sun terrace or inside with air-conditioning.

Mar a Vila

Mar a Vila is quite famous for outstanding tapas, which enjoy a reputation of being finger-licking good. It is a great place for lunch, with a charming décor and friendly service.

Restaurante Plaça del Sol

Restaurante Plaça del Sol provides an amazingly romantic setting with beautiful views over the harbour from the large terrace. If you plan a day in Dalt Vila, this is a great place to start your day with a peaceful breakfast. At night, Mediterranean cuisine is served.
There is an abundance of cool, breezy cafés on Ibiza, many extremely inviting for a moment of relaxation. Take your pick, kick back and enjoy the relaxing atmosphere of one of the island's many establishments.

Café Mambo

Known as the pre-clubbing place, Mambo serves delicious cocktails with fresh ingredients in an amazing setting. You simply cannot go wrong if you choose this venue as a pre-drink location.

Café del Mar

Café del Mar is the most famous of them all. Sitting by the bay shore, admiring the stunning sunset while listening to the authentic music of Café del Mar is a quintessential experience when visiting Ibiza.

Kumharas

Kumharas is a funky, hip chillout bar on the west side of Ibiza, with a location perfect for watching the sunset. The music echoes Goa, with house, rave and hip hop played. Events and entertainment such as juggling, acrobatics and fire twirling are not unusual. There is also a small hippy market close by.

Raco Verd

This is a lovely little venue in Ibiza. Come here to enjoy freshly squeezed juice under beautiful olive trees for breakfast, lunch or dinner. They also play live music in the garden. Serves tapas and Mexican cuisine.
If you like ice cream you should head over to Viccio - they offer an amazing selection of ice cream flavours, along with smoothies, sweet treats, and various deserts. There is much too choose from in the savoury department, too - salads, mains, and a brunch menu.

Ibiza’s bars set the scene for the incredible nightlife to come. Drinks are a little cheaper here than in the clubs, and most bars (unlike clubs) have free entry. There are club ticket deals and sometimes promotional offers on free chupitos (shots). Party-goers and DJs come to Ibiza from all over the world to party all night long. It is decidedly one of the most incredible clubbing experiences in the world. Season runs from June through September. Club entrance fees are usually anywhere between €20-60.

Bora Bora Ibiza lies right on the beach and has free entry. You can either soak up the groovy vibes from a comfortable sunbed, or mingle with other party people on the terrace. It is one of the island’s most popular party venues, both for day and night time.

TOURIST INFORMATION

Ibiza Airport lies 7,5 km from Ibiza Town. Bus: Line 10 takes passengers to and from Ibiza Town in 30 minutes. It leaves every hour from 7 am to 11.20 pm.

Taxi: Takes around 20 minutes to the centre of Ibiza Town. Taxis for persons with special needs are also available either at the taxi stop or by calling +34 971 800 080.

Dc10

At Dc10 you can find all sorts of clothing for men and women (most pieces are designated to be worn specifically in the hot Ibiza summers, and, naturally, include swimwear). The store stocks knick knacks and accessories alongside clothing.
Car hire:

Enterprises rent-a-car
www.enterprise.es

Avis, Betacar Ibiza, Centauro, Hertz and Tui cars all have offices at the airport located on the arrivals level.

On the arrivals level, you can also find an airport information desk, a tourist- and post office.

Best Time to Visit

The Ibiza party season lasts from early May (some clubs host opening parties already in late April) to September/beginning of October. This period coincides with Ibiza's peak season, with temperatures being at their highest in July and August, while June and September being the less crowded months with milder temperatures.

Passport/Visa

Spain can be visited visa-free for up to 90 days by citizens of Australia, New Zealand, Japan, South Korea, Taiwan, Malaysia, Israel, UAE and most countries in America. If you are unsure whether or not you need to apply for a visa, we recommend contacting the embassy or consulate in your country. International (non-Schengen) travelers need a passport that is valid for at least 3 months after the end of their intended trip in order to enter the Schengen zone. Citizens of Schengen countries can travel without a passport, but must have a valid ID with them during their stay.

Public Transport

Ibiza has a decent bus service that will take you around the island. Regular bus services work all year, while night buses and the Discobus between Ibiza Town and Sant Antoni are in service from May until September.

All buses run from/to Avgda d'Isidor Macabich in Ibiza Town and bus stops are signed with a blue "P" on white background.

There's a water bus service from Ibiza harbour to other beaches on the island. You can also take it to go across the harbour (to the El Divino club and Marina Botafoch).

Taxi

It is usually easy to find a taxi in Ibiza. Additional charges are possible for airport and seaport pickup/delivery, phone bookings, transporting animals, luggage and waiting time.
The Spanish postal service is called Correos. You can get stamps at the post office or at the tobacconist (estanco).

Correos Ibiza Town:

Address: Avgda d’Isidor Macabich 65, Ibiza
Phone: +34 971 39 97 69
