THE ISLAND

manfredrichter/Pixabay.com (image cropped)

Rhodes, the largest of the Dodecanese islands, is not an ordinary holiday resort but a cosmopolitan place with an international reputation: the charming medieval town, the sophisticated Lindos, the irresistible valley of the butterflies, the high-quality lifestyle and the long golden sand beaches make the days and nights in the island unforgettable.

Rhodes is a combination of medieval tradition and modern style which impresses and fascinates visitors of all kinds. At the homonym capital of Rhodes, the romantic medieval Old Town holds amazing historical buildings, and the modern New Town also has its archaeological findings. Millions of tourists walk through the narrow streets of the Old Town every year, to visit the museums, the churches and the fortress walls, just following the steps of the knights.

Together with an intensive nightlife in Faliraki, crystal water and warm locals, the island makes for a great choice in holiday!

DO & SEE

SHOPPING

VGstockstudio/Shutterstock.com

Shopping in Rhodes can be a great and exciting experience, as the combination of traditional and modern markets offers an unique shopping experience. However, there are two different kinds of markets in the same town: the folklore market and the new market with all the familiar brand name stores, and even the opening hours of the two markets are different.

The shops in the Old Town stay open until late at night, as their target group is mostly tourists, and Aristotelous and Sokratous streets and all the streets around the Ippokratous square are the heart of shopping in the Old town. Colourful umbrellas, lots of souvenirs, jeweller's shops, crowds and many other gifts are set up in this area, creating the feeling of an all-day fair.

If you are looking for stylish and trendy clothes, you have to visit the New Market in Sofokli Venizelou Str and Kyprou Square. In Archangelos, in contrast, you will find pots and the traditional leather boots the old islanders used to wear.

As to jewellery, watches, ethnic wares, ceramics, trendy and expensive clothes from the most popular brand names, you can find almost anything you want just by walking the streets of the Old and the New town.

Natura Greca

At Greca Natural Products, you can find all the natural products that you have been looking (and longing) for like forever. Take home a bit of Greece in your bag with olive oil, olives, pate, honey of different flavours, as well as Chios mastic products and homemade jams.

Passport / Visa

Greece can be visited visa-free for up to 90 days by citizens of most European countries, Australia, New Zealand, Japan, South Korea,

Taiwan, Malaysia, Israel, UAE and most countries in America. If you are unsure whether or not you need to apply for a visa, we recommend contacting the embassy or consulate in your country. International (non-Schengen) travelers need a passport that is valid for at least 3 months after the end of their intended trip in order to enter the Schengen zone. Citizens of Schengen countries can travel without a passport, but must have a valid ID with them during their stay.

Best Time to Visit

As Rhodes is one of the most southern islands in Greece, it has a milder climate and a long season of summer, lasting from the beginning of April until the end of November. However, all services and sights are open throughout the year, so there is still plenty to see and to do during winter from December until the end of March, and you do benefit from lower prices and less crowded places.

Public Transport

The island has a well-established bus network connecting all the villages with the city, so it is not necessary to rent a car. There are two local bus transportation companies, serving on the whole island quite efficiently: RODA and KTEL, and the latter one also informs about its routes online. However, a motorbike will be better and faster.

Taxi

There are several taxi companies in Rhodes, serving across the island.

One of them is Taxi Rhodes, which can be booked in advance but there are other ones serving well also:

Post

There are many departments in the town, so you don't need to go far, and you can find the main Post Office ELTA in Mandraki. However, there are other shops close by as well but be aware that most of the shops close down on midday:

Pharmacy

There are several pharmacies across town (and island), and a central one is "Ypsilantis Zacharias" in the Old Town. However, there are other shops as well, and each of them has a notice in the window stating pharmacies that are open out of hours and their addresses.
